

Byron KOTZAMANIS

Docteur es Lettres et Sciences Humaines, Univ. of Paris X, 1989. Researcher at the National Centre of Social Research (1983-1996) and member of its Management Board (1987-1988 and 1990-1991). Associate Professor (1989-1999) and Professor of Demography since 2000 (Dept of Planning and Regional Development, University of Thessaly/UTH). Director of the Laboratory of Demographic and Social Analyses of UTH since 1998 (<http://www.demography-lab.prd.uth.gr>). Director of the Post-graduate Studies Program of the Dept. of Planning and Regional Studies (2001-2004). Director, (2015-2017) of the Joint French-Greek Master Program “Population-Development-Foresight” organized by the Univ. of Thessaly and the Univ. of Bordeaux (<http://www.podepro.prd.uth.gr>). President (2001-2004) of the International Association of French Speaking Demographers (AIDELF) and Honorary president since 2005. President (2007->) of the international Association Demobalk (<http://www.demobalk.org>). Chevalier de Palmes Academiques of the French Government (2005). Expert of the European Commission responsible for the re-organization of the Statistical Institutes in the Western Balkan countries (Montenegro, Serbia, BiH) in the framework of PHARE and CARDS programs. Scientific responsible for the implementation of several research programs financed both by national and international (WB, Eurostat) institutions. Author, co-author or editor of books about demographic /population developments in Greece and the Balkans. Author several papers, articles and texts in collective volumes which treat issues of demographic policy, population projections, migration, and family/fertility (as well as the spatial dimensions of demographic phenomena) in Greece and in Balkans.